

Search 1011

Auction Art & Interior

Date 25.02.2021, ca. 12:56

WHITE TARA ON LOTUS BASE.

Origin: Nepal.

Date: 19th c.

Technique: Bronze with remains of gilding and pigments. Figure cast, base in repoussé.

Description: She is adorned with the sevenfold Bodhisattva jewels and her dhoti lies in rich folds around her legs. Next her shoulders the lotus flowers, around her head a mandorla with leaves. Her right foot is placed on a separate lotus base, showing her readiness for action

Measurement: 825g. H.14.8cm, w.10.9cm.

Condition A/B.

Provenance:

Collection Dr. Wolfgang Schumann, Indologist and author of numerous reference books on the subject of Buddhism and India. Lived in India from 1960, was 1988-93 German Consul General in Bombay. In 2000 he was awarded the Rabindranath Tagore Prize for Literature.

Estimate: 600 € - 800 €; Hammer: 1.400 €
