DOUBLE-SIDED WOODEN ALTARPIECE FOR A TOY ALTAR.

Augsburg.

Date: 18th century.

Technique: Wood, with polychrome painting, metal frame.

Description: The small double-sided altarpiece shows the Nativity with the shepherds on one side, and a Pietà on the reverse.

Measurement: 18,5 x 11,5cm.

Provenance:

Private collection Bavaria.

Double-sided altars were not uncommon in churches, but it is rare that this was also done for a toy altar.

Estimate: 1.000 € - 2.000 €; Hammer: 800 €
