- The typical scenes from nightlife, depicted in claustrophobic confinement, are among the most sought-after works on the art market
- The painting comes from a nine-part group of works that Kleinschmidt created in a strong vertical format as a bar decoration
- Paul Kleinschmidt developed his very own, unmistakable style of painting, which moves between Realism, Expressionism and New Objectivity

New catalog raisonné:

VAN HAM Art Publications has begun to compile a new catalog raisonné of paintings and works on paper based on the dissertation "Paul Kleinschmidt 1883-1949," 1977, by Dr. Barbara Lipps-Kant. This is happening under the direction of Dr. Felix Billeter and in cooperation with the artist's descendants and the Paul Kleinschmidt Gesellschaft e.V..

For this purpose we ask for your assistance: Please contact publications@van-ham.com if you have an original work by Paul Kleinschmidt in your possession. Your data will of course be treated discreetly.
